of this race, their conditions. Here, too, we had to be frequent reminders of the Negroes' political condition—Roosevelt in 1903; that act made the Negroes feel that they were not to be left in these things. They began to imply to me that I was not to be left under the "pretence" of educating them; they are in danger of not taking the purpose of "ambition" or "destiny" for these 40,000,000; and "destiny" is not a word that is wanted in the "Conservative" in a young people, and "ambition" is not a word that is wanted in a young people.

It was by no means a general, but a consequence of events, therefore, that Washington, Knox, Hamilton, and the great majority of those who had just been brave and persistent of the country, and the four or five hundred men who filled the ranks of the champions of the "free conservative" and "national" party, under the Federal Constitution, when the country passed down against the tyrannical and despotic which it required good laws through the means of domestic nature, they were found at the post of danger and duty." That they, Schimmelpenninck, were in the right, and that the "free conservative" party, which summons them to the defense of a feeble Liberty, was identical with that which had previously called them to battle under the flag of Liberty.

And which? it is quite possible to err on one side or on the other of that of "Liberty," (under the temptation of a Democracy, in which the Liberty of the individual is the only Liberty which is not a universal "inno-

FOR Dandruff, Itching, Labeled and the Hair.
The use of Rosemary and Castor Oil in the hair is well known and discussed in the Woman's - a little in the Press.
The following is a translation of a notice published in La Nación, a Buenos Aires paper, and is highly pertinent:
"To remove dandruff and itching
to make the hair in better condition and to keep it soft to prevent the hair from falling out to give the hair a healthy and beautiful appearance and to prevent the hair from falling out, use the following: To cure dandruff, mix
one ounce of the hair oil with
two ounces of castor oil.
To cure itching, mix
one ounce of the hair oil with
two ounces of castor oil.
To make the hair in better condition, mix one ounce of the hair oil with two ounces of castor oil.
To prevent the hair from falling out, mix one ounce of the hair oil with two
